want to support
families 1-to-1

This course extends practitioners' HENRY skills and equips them to deliver our responsive 1-to-1 programme, which covers parenting skills, emotional wellbeing, nutrition, getting active and family routines

“ I feel much more confident to deliver this programme 1-to-1 now ”

This training course covers:

- Developing and enhancing skills to explore complex family lifestyle issues and helping parents set and achieve their own goals for family life
- Building confidence to address family lifestyle issues with parents when working 1-to-1
- Delivering the structured 1-to-1 Healthy Families: Right from the Start programme
- Adopting the proven HENRY approach to supporting behaviour change, and ethos of working in partnership with parents and building on their strengths
